

Application for leave of absence

(The application is to be sent to the School Management)

According to Opplæringsloven §2-11 Aalesund International School can, after an application, give a student leave of absence from the mandatory teaching for up to two weeks. The school is not able to give leave of absence for more than two weeks.

The condition for a leave is that the parents makes sure that the student is following the teaching plan according to his/her class, and that he/she is up to date with what the class has been doing during her/his leave of absence.
